SECOND DAY-For yesterday's races the weather held up an the afternoon was rather warmer (though without sun), but the swampy state of the course made the running rather hard for the ponies. The attendance was about the same as on the previous day, and amongst those present were His Excellency Major General Donovan, the Chiof Justice, the Colonial Secretary, and the Commodore. The band of the 27th Inniskillings was again in attendance and played the following programme under the direction of Herr Werner: "The young Recruit" verture "Emma di Rosburgo" ... Meyerbeer.

election "Boatrice di Tenda" "Pomone"..... Waldteafel. "Friendship" The honours of the day were divided between five stables, Mr. Paul taking two prizes (the German Cup and Town Plate), Mr. Henry two the Professional Cup and Stand Plate), and Mr. Kerfoot, Mr. Risk, and Mr. Octavio one cach. The results of the races were a series of 353 sec surprises, the favourites having a bad time of it, I TICTIONNAIRE CHINOIS-FRAN. except in the Banker's Plate, in which Strathavon fulfilled the expectations which had been formed of him, and won in a canter, Mr. Bidwell, his jockey, turning his head to see where the others vere. In the Parsee Cup Mr. Paul claimed a foul for Wasp against Mr. Octavio's Bellye, but DRAFTS granted on London, and the chief WAD. CHASTEL & Co., WINE MERCHANTS, afterwards withdrew it. Mr. E. Pye's Wirreanda, 10st. 12lb..... (Mr. Tennant) The ponies got away well together. Red Robin was leading at the Black Rock and he passed the Grand Stand in the same position, with Reichsfreiherr and Fluke running together half a length behind. Passing the bridge Wirreanda took first place, and at the Black Rock led by a longth, with Tajmahal second. Entering the straight Gossoon had displaced Wirreands; and Lutke came up into third place. The three leaders kept pretty close until half way up the straight when Lutke fell off, leaving the race between Tajmahal and Gosseon. The former came in first a longth and a half ahead, Gossoon's rider flogging heavily as he passed the post. Six lengths between second and third. Time, 3 min.

Rawling, Medlen & Co., was cross-examined on an affidavit made by him, and Mesers. Tomlin and Neate of the Surveyor General's Department were subponned by the plaintiff to produce certain official documents; they were each examined, and crossexamined at considerble length. Their evidence. tended to show that many of the old Crown leasus ! were inaccurate as to the area of the ground demised, that in most of such cases the tenants held more land than the leases professed to denise and that the practice has been for the tenants in thuse instances to surrender the old leases and take new leases of the whole premises at increased rents according to the extra ground. It transpired in the course of the case that it was the rule of the Surveyor General's Department not to grant new Crown Lienses in cases where the boundaries of the lots were in dispute between the adjoining lotnew lease was granted whilst such dispute

The case stands adjourned until Monday next. the 1st proxime, at 9 a.m., when the plaintiff's enso will close and the defendant's case will be commenced.
